

Relocation WA's Moving-Into-a-New-House Checklist

Planning Your Move

Planning before you move is a crucial part of your checklist for transitioning to a new home as it sets the groundwork for a successful relocation.

<input type="checkbox"/>	Establish a schedule
<input type="checkbox"/>	Allocate time for budgeting and financial strategising
<input type="checkbox"/>	Find reputable and skilled movers to collaborate with

Decluttering and Downsizing

Planning before you move is a crucial part of your checklist for transitioning to a new home as it sets the groundwork for a successful relocation.

<input type="checkbox"/>	Organise and categorise your belongings
<input type="checkbox"/>	Host a garage sale or consider donating items
<input type="checkbox"/>	Arrange your packing necessities

Address and Utility Transfer

The next crucial time frame on your moving house spreadsheet is about a month prior to your relocation abroad. This should cover the following:

<input type="checkbox"/>	Inform the Australian Post office about your updated address details.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Notify government agencies, banks, insurance providers, and any subscriptions about your updated mailing address
<input type="checkbox"/>	Letting your friends and family know about your new address in Australia
<input type="checkbox"/>	Contact your utility service providers

Packing and Loading

Planning for packing and loading is a crucial part of your new home checklist, guaranteeing secure packing to minimise the risk of damage during transportation.

<input type="checkbox"/>	Establish a packing plan
<input type="checkbox"/>	Prepare essential items for moving day
<input type="checkbox"/>	Arrange for the loading and transportation in advance

Unloading and Settling In

Upon moving into a new house, the unloading and settling-in phase are essential to create that sense of home at your new address.

<input type="checkbox"/>	Develop a plan for unpacking your belongings
<input type="checkbox"/>	Think about the best arrangement for your furniture
<input type="checkbox"/>	Make home safety a priority

Home Maintenance and Personalisation

After settling into your new home, the upkeep and customisation (which may involve creating a new house shopping list) become pivotal during the post-move period.

<input type="checkbox"/>	Arrange for a home inspection
<input type="checkbox"/>	Make your space your own

Post-Move Follow-Up

The post-move check is often neglected but remains a crucial part of transitioning to a new home. It ensures not only success but also happiness in your new abode.

<input type="checkbox"/>	Thank your movers
<input type="checkbox"/>	Update your emergency contacts
<input type="checkbox"/>	Explore your new neighbourhood
